

Academic Internship Program

At The Washington Center (TWC), our goal is simple: we aim to provide the connections, tools and insights you need to launch a career you'll love. Whether you take part in our internship program in Washington, D.C. or join us online, you'll have an immersive experience that's tailored to you and your goals.

Program Components

Internship

TWC partners with over 400 internship sites in D.C. and across the country, and we'll prepare you to land the internship that's right for you. Once you begin your internship, you'll be working on projects related to your interests, with a supervisor who cares about your growth and success.

Career Readiness Programming

Through TWC's Career Readiness Programming, you'll develop the professionalism, communication skills and network necessary to excel in any work environment. Each week, you'll engage in a mix of workshops, one-on-one career advising, networking events and more designed to maximize your internship experience.
