

2019: My Year in Review

Another year is in the history books, which means it's time to reflect and celebrate everything we've learned so far! Fill in the blanks below:

My proudest accomplishment

My biggest disappointment

The best compliment I got

The most important thing I learned about myself

A new skill that I developed

A good habit that I adopted

The most useful professional advice I received

If I could do it all over again, I'd do this differently

The most surprising thing that happened

My most memorable experience
